Vecherni Novini.PANCHEVSKI ADDRESSES MILITARY CORRESPONDENTS

MILITARY CORRESPONDENTS HOLD MEETING -- Sofia, Vecherni Novini, 19 Jan 52

The first meeting of correspondents of the newspaper Narodna Voyska (People's Army) was held between 15 and 18 January 1952 in the Central People's Army Center in Sofia. Col Gen Petur Panchevski, Minister of National Defense, opened the meeting. Col Petur Stanchev, chief editor of the newspaper, spoke on the subject, "The tasks of the military correspondent movement in the Bulgarian people's Army." Military correspondents D. Bogoev, Y. Zhelev, V. Dzhavkov, K. Batkov, Iv. Paunov, and Il. Bivolarov discussed their work on the above newspaper. In the afternoon, M. Neychev, Minister of Foreign Affairs and member of the Politburo of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party, spoke on the international and domestic situation. During the second and third day of the meeting, the following officers spoke: D. Marinov on "The power and duty of the press in the army," Uzunov on "Problematic correspondence," St. Stanchev [not designated as an officer], chief editor of Otechestven Front, on "Outlining," Ts. Khristov on "The role and duty of military correspondents in training military personnel," and Lazarov on "Single command." On the last day of the meeting, officer Bozakov spoke on "What and how a military correspondent should write."

MINERS ADOPT MILITARY UNIT -- Sofia, Vecherni Novini, 19 Jan 52

Dimitrovo, 19 January -- On 17 January, the miners of the "Temelko Nenkov" Mine signed a new agreement to the effect that they are adopting Border Podelenie (unit) 45,980. The miners agreed to give the border unit ten issues of Rudnichar (Miner), purchase books for their library, arrange track meets, have their best miners visit the border unit, and give them [Food?] parcels. The border troops agreed to arrange parties, give political speeches before the miners, and send agitators to the miners for the purpose of exposing the Tito clique.
